105. 2334_Stock_1926. 10. 06
p1

T. H Pfeiffer Esq.

I submit the following for Wednesday the 6th day of Oct. 1926.

Had a talk with Inspector of Post office Mr. C. E. Entemann in Post office in Newark N.J. bet 11 30 AM 12.20 P.M.

Mr. C.E. Entemann stated that he and Inspector Robt. Aldous was looking for one Henry L Dickmann who was a pal of deceased J.J. Flanaghan alias John J Mangon who was shot by Post office clerk E.J Stack of East Orange Post office on Jany 1st 1926. Entemann stated they could prove he was in Newark at Proctor Theatre 2 or 3 nights before the attempted Robbery, but he had left after the hold up, also they had taken Conductor F.C, Hockenbury of the train the (2) rode on to East Orange to look at an "Identain" but he stated he did not think he was the man, also, about a year after they boned of Dickmann was in Col. locked up, but as he had to go South, they had let case drop; he stated he or Aldous would take E L Stack over to look at Dickmann some day next week and for me to drop in to see him, he further said it looked thin for Dickmann to say he left for a bike as it was a year and near 10 months after the 1st case of H + M was over, and takes no stock in his statements.

I visited Conductor F.C, Hockenbury at his house being 132-11 ave cor of 1st St Newark and he stated he felt sure he could identify the Dickmann if he was the man who got away. They had taken to for Orange but as train pulled out from East Orange, they both jumped off, neither one wore their coats, had their caps pulled down and kept looking out of the windows, soon after leaving Station he heard shots fired, then thought of these 2 thugs as he called them owing to their looks & dress also actions. he was willing to go if necessary to identify the one who got away, any time after next Monday.

I made a second visit to his house and found he & his wife in the garage rear of house garage faces 12 St, time was 4:10 PM, I showed him picture of H L Dickmann and he stated in presence of Mrs. Hoskins that when he saw the picture of Dickmann in the news he said he looked like the man who got away. also said to me after looking at picture in different angles that he felt sure he was the other man as he wore the same kind of a shirt only had the collar unbuttoned and loose, he took special notice of both as to their looks and actions, also their tickets reading Orange and getting off at East Orange,

105.2334 p2

Respt Submitted

Stout

105. 2334 p3

T. H Pfeiffer Esq.

Submit the following for Wednesday the 6th day of Oct. 1926.

Had a talk with Inspector of Post office Mr. C.E. Entemann in Post office in Newark N.J. at 11 30 AM/PM 12.20 P.M.

Mr. C.E. Entemann stated that he and Inspector Robt. Aldous was looking for one Henry L Dickmann who was a pal of deceased J.J. Flanagan the chauffeur John J Thompson who was shot by Post office clerk E.L Stack of East Orange Post office on Aug 1st 1926. further stated they could prove he was in Newark at Proctor Theatre 2 or 3 nights before the attempted Robbery, but he had left after the hold up, also they had taken Conductor F.C. Hockenbury of the train the (2) rode on to East Orange. to look at an "Identification" but he stated he did not think he was the man, also about a year after they booked of Dickmann was in Cl. but did up, but as he had to go South they had let case drop;- he stated he or Aldous would take E L Stack over to look at Dickmann some day next week and for me to drop in to see him, he further said it looked thin for Dickmann to say he left for a trip as it was a year and near 10 months after the 1st case of H-d up was over, and takes no stock in his statements.

I visited Conductor F.C. Hockenbury at his house being 133-11 Ave cor of 1st Newark and he stated he felt sure he could identify the Dickmann if he was the man who got away. they had taken to

for Orange but as Train pulled out from East Orange, they both jumped off, neither one wore their Coats, had their Caps pulled down - and kept looking out of the windows, down after leaving Station he heard shots fired, then thought of these 2 things as he called them owing to their looks & dress also actions. he was willing to go if necessary to identify the one who got away, any time after next Tuesday.

I made a second visit to his house and found he & his wife in the Garage rear of house garage faces 12 St, twin cars 42 1/2 Pm. I showed him picture of H L Dickmann and he stated in presence of Mrs. Hoelzlein that when he saw the picture of Dickmann in the News he said he looked like the man who got away. also said to me after looking at picture in different angles that he felt sure he was the other man as he wore the same kind of a shirt only had the collar unbuttoned and loose, he took special notice of both as to their looks and actions, also their tickets reading Orange and getting off at East Orange.

Respt Submitted

Stroto

105. 2334.

P4